

Thoughtstarters: Examples from other CL organizations

Community Living Toronto changes the lives of people with an intellectual disability by giving them a voice and supporting their choices where they live, learn, work and play.

Community Living North Grenville is a local organization founded by families and friends of individuals with an intellectual disability. Community Living North Grenville advocates for, promotes and facilitates the full participation, inclusion and citizenship of people who have an intellectual disability.

Community Living Ontario is a family-based association assisting people who have an intellectual disability and their families to lead the way in advancing inclusion in their own lives and in their communities. As a province-wide confederation, rooted in a strong network of individuals, families, friends, member organizations and community partners, it will be guided by, adhere to and strive to achieve its goal and vision in all its actions.

Ongwanada is dedicated to supporting people with developmental disabilities, with a special focus on those with complex needs and their families so they can lead full lives, effectively supported in their communities.

[Merged from a mix of examples] We offer a full range of personalized supports and services to people with an intellectual disability and their families. That mission incorporates our aim to set the benchmark for excellence, innovation, advocacy and accountability in the developmental services sector in our community.